

JACKIES

Witness Bull Fight And Spring Into The Ring

ADMIRALS LEAVE BOX

Action is Regarded As Breach of National Etiquette

President of Peru Sends Congratulatory Telegram To Roosevelt.

Lima, Peru, Feb. 25.—All Lima was gasping last night over the action of the three American Rear Admirals, Thomas, Sperry and Emory, who abruptly left President Pardo's private box after the killing of the fourth bull in the bull fight which was specially arranged for the officers and men of Admiral Evans' fleet.

Such action is regarded here as contrary to etiquette and is a serious breach of the national custom in such matters. By special order of the President the horses were not killed, but it was evident from the action of the Americans that they did not from the first take kindly to the exhibition. Rear Admiral Thomas, who represents the commander-in-chief, was one of the first to arrive, accompanied by his fellow commanders, and there was a great attendance of jackies from the warships.

In the first fight the bull was quickly dispatched, but when the second bull was let into the ring it made a mad rush at Matador Padilla and before he could get out of the way he was gored so severely in the neck that he was hurled to the ground with blood spurting from a terrible wound close to the jugular vein. It is probable that he will die.

A number of American jackies leaped into the ring and struggled with each other to get possession of the banderillas before the bull was dead. These banderillas or barbs are stuck into the flesh of the bull by the picadors, and the jackies tore the barbs out eagerly. The police, however, chased them out of the ring. At one time fully half of the 3,000 United States jackies present were in the ring. For time it looked as if their enthusiasm would serve to break up the entire spectacle. During the bull fights a heavy rain fell—the first in Lima in 40 years.

The wounding of the matador seemed to have a depressing effect upon Admiral Thomas, and until he left he shifted uneasily in his seat and seemed to be looking for a chance to get away. Finally, at the end of the fourth bull fight, he arose abruptly.

HARRY THAW

SAID TO BE HOPELESSLY INSANE BY ALIENISTS WHO EXAMINED HIM.

His Future is in Hands of the State Board of Lunacy—Refuses to Answer Questions.

New York, Feb. 25.—According to reports received here yesterday, Harry Kendall Thaw is believed now to be hopelessly insane. It is declared that alienists who have examined and observed him since he was committed to Matteawan Criminal Insane Asylum are convinced that he is a paranoiac, and as paranoiac is a progressive disease it would appear that nothing short of a miracle can intervene to secure his freedom.

In the present state of Thaw's case his future is entirely in the hands of the state board of lunacy and the staff of alienists in Matteawan. Custom provides that when a man is committed to the State Hospital for the Criminal Insane the doctors there shall observe him for 60 days and then make a report upon his mental condition, if they see fit.

Dr. Ferris, head of the state board of lunacy said:

"No one can tell whether Harry Thaw is sane or insane until relatives and counsel, quit visiting and advising him. I called on Mr. Thaw once three weeks ago. About all I could get from him was that, by advice of counsel, he was compelled to refuse to answer questions. I have not been near him since."

EXPERT ACCOUNTANT

BEGINS PROBE OF STATE TREASURER McKINNON'S OFFICE TODAY.

No Record Kept of Bank Deposits or of Interest Paid Except on Certificates.

Columbus, Feb. 25.—Fred C. Lohman of Cleveland, an expert accountant employed by the Senate committee, commenced his probe of the accounts of State Treasurer McKinnon today. Senators Howe and Drake went with him to McKinnon's office. No objection was offered by McKinnon. McKinnon repeated there was no record kept of deposits in individual banks or interest paid, except on the back of certificates of deposits. He said that no attempt had ever been made to get more than 2-1/2 per cent for deposits although last fall bankers offered to pay more.

"If a certificate of deposit should be lost how would you know it?" asked Senator Howe.

"That is impossible, as the certificates are all kept in a vault and no one except Green has access to them."

"Then you have no certificate register?" asked Howe.

"We have never kept any," said Green, McKinnon's assistant.

Attorney General Ellis said today that since January 1 last Treasurer McKinnon was on a straight salary and not entitled to any commission on interest collected.

they were riding and an Ontario and Western Railroad express train at the West Nyack railroad station. The party was returning from a basketball game here. Coroner Percival Van Orden of Suffern, is making a rigid investigation and may order an arrest of a railroad employee within the next 24 hours. Officials of the road blame May, driver of the wagon, for the accident. They said the gates at the crossing had been lowered 55 minutes before the express passed West Nyack and that he tried to force his horses through them. Friends of the dead and injured asserted the gates were not down and Coroner Van Orden was not satisfied with a deposition made by Conrad Kaufman, gateman, of West Nyack.

HANGED

Itself in Crib Dig Eight Months Old Infant at Zanesville, Saturday Evening.

Zanesville, Feb. 25.—Evan Clinton Roach, the eight months old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Roach of Bailey street, met a tragic death Saturday evening, the child accidentally hanging himself in a cot on which he had been sleeping.

The accident came about in a peculiar way. The little one had been left alone in a room but a few minutes, sleeping soundly on a cot, when in some manner he slipped down through the opening between the spring net and the side of the cot. When the body of the child slipped through the aperture made by the sagging of the spring, the net rebounded, catching his head between the frame of the bed and the spring, holding him fast. The child's neck was broken and death resulted almost instantly.

TWO SHOTS RANG OUT

AND WEALTHY BROOKLYN LAWYER IS LYING AT POINT OF DEATH.

Demented Woman Claims She Suffered Wounds at Hands of Chas. M. Sanford.

New York, Feb. 25.—Another woman took bloody revenge today upon the man who she alleges ruined her life and as a result Charles M. Sanford, a wealthy and well known Brooklyn lawyer, is lying at the point of death at the Brooklyn hospital, while the woman who shot him, Mrs. Jennie Bunt, is a prisoner talking incoherently about alleged wrongs she suffered at Sanford's hands. Sanford was shot in the back of the head.

Mrs. Bunt, thirty years old, came to the Garfield building where Sanford has his office, shortly after 8 o'clock this morning and waited at a door of Sanford's suite until one of the other occupants showed up. When Sanford arrived he led her into his private office and closed the door. Shortly after other tenants heard loud talking and a moment later two shots rang out. Sanford, blood streaming from the back of his head, opened the door and looked into the arms of his clerk, Mrs. Bunt flourishing a revolver, rushed upon him, but another lawer caught her. Mrs. Bunt offered no resistance to arrest. She appears to be slightly demented.

BUBONIC PLAGUE

Does Not Seem to Worry Members of Pacific Squadron—Precautions Being Taken.

Lima, Peru, Feb. 25.—The fact that bubonic plague is prevalent in Peruvian cities is apparently causing no uneasiness on the United States battleship fleet. Not only has the disease not reached the proportions of an epidemic, but no precaution has been spared, either by officials of the Armada or by the Peruvian authorities to protect the visitors against contact with it. Section in Callao where cases exist are under rigid quarantine.

BANDITS

These Lads Were Desirous of Becoming and "Shoot Up" a Town in Western Style.

Evansville, Ind., Feb. 25.—Henry Newman, aged 18, and Ed Richardson, aged 19, who, it is said, from early boyhood have read Wild West novels, attempted to "shoot up the town."

They secured a horse and buggy and drove along, firing their revolvers promiscuously at men, women and children in the streets and on the sidewalks. They fired about 50 shots, but luckily all went wild and no one was hurt.

Several patrolmen and detectives, joined by infuriated citizens and many farmers, followed the young men nine miles into the country. The men drove their horses to death before they were captured, and one horse driven by policemen was also driven to death.

The men showed fight when surrounded, but their ammunition ran out and they were compelled to give up. They were hauled into town in a log wagon.

STORY

Of Denver Tragedy Told by Murderer Of Priest

PRACTICED FOR MONTHS

Used Trees For Targets So He Would Make No Mistake

Could Not Secure Work And Avenged Himself On Clergy.

Denver, Colo., Feb. 25.—Joseph Alio, or Giuseppe Guarnaccio, the Italian anarchist, who assassinated Father Leo Heinrichs, the Franciscan priest, while the latter was giving holy communion has told the story of his awful crime.

He was sitting in his little cell in the county jail at Colorado Springs, where he had been taken to protect his life from the Denver mob which wanted to tear him to pieces.

This man is like nothing but a gray old rat, cunning and not without resources, willing to fight if cornered. It was the pose of a man bracing himself against the unknown, resolved to meet it without flinching. This is his story:

"Since December 15 I have done no work, because I could not find any. The last two weeks I have had no money at all and have eaten at the Salvation Army place. I went out into the country on many long walks and one month ago I bought a box of cartridges.

"When I went into the country I took the cartridges with me and I practiced shooting. Always I carried that revolver with me, removing the sharp pointed bullets when I practiced shooting at trees as large as a man. When I could hit a tree at 10 yards I knew that I could kill a priest at that distance if I could come that close to him.

"On Saturday night I went early to bed, but got no rest. Toward morning I dozed a little, and then the church bells woke me. I had not been to church before in Denver. I went inside with the rest, and did as they did.

"A priest came out to the altar and the services began. I had never seen the priest before. Soon as the people went forward and knelt I went, too, because I wanted to get close to that priest.

"I opened my mouth and the priest placed something on my tongue. It burned me and I jumped up, spat it out and with my left hand I drew the revolver, and when the priest turned toward me I fired and he fell.

"Yes, I went to the church to kill a priest—it made no difference to me what his nationality.

President Fillmore's Cousin a Distinguished Clergyman

Rev. Corydon Millard, who is a first cousin of the late President Fillmore, and a prominent clergyman, having served as chaplain of the Fourth U. S. Heavy Artillery, has just returned to Milwaukee from an extended trip abroad, during which he did valuable missionary work. He says that Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is the best tonic for old age and declining years.

REV. CORYDON MILLARD.

Chaplain Millard is very proud of letters received by him from such well-known statesmen as Ex-Governor Edw. Scofield, of Wisconsin; the late Hon. John Sherman, Secretary of State under President McKinley, and the Hon. W. S. Aldrich, late Member of Congress from Minnesota.

In a letter of introduction given to Chaplain Millard before he started on his missionary tour to Japan, Ex-Governor Scofield says: "I am pleased to certify that Rev. Corydon Millard, of Milwaukee, Wis., is a gentleman of high character and standing in the community in which he resides, and I commend him to the kind offices of American Ministers and Consuls and of all whom he may meet."

"In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Executive Privy Seal to be affixed. Done at the Capitol, in the City of Madison, this First day of August, A. D., 1898."

Chaplain Millard is a firm believer in Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as the best tonic stimulant, and uses it regularly as prescribed. In a recent letter to the company he wrote: "I have used your Malt Whiskey and find it to be the best tonic for old age and declining years. I am 88 years of age, and my extreme old age naturally has caused me to suffer great weakness and debility. When I found myself growing weak I insisted upon two or three spoonfuls of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey."

key each day. My family physician said: 'In your old age you need a stimulant,' and I replied, 'Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is sufficient,' and I must say it has proved a great tonic and stimulant. It has strengthened my system and makes me feel younger. I will always recommend it to anyone who is run down and weak, either from disease or old age. When you visit the city of Milwaukee be sure to come and see me."

is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain; great care being used to have every kernel thoroughly malted, thus destroying the germ and producing a predigested liquid food in the form of a malt essence, which is the most effective tonic stimulant and invigorator known to science; softened by warmth and moisture its palatability and freedom from injurious substances render it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach. It is invaluable for overworked men, delicate women and sickly children. It strengthens and sustains the system; is a promoter of health and longevity; makes the old young and keeps the young strong.

CAUTION.—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. It is the only absolutely pure medicinal malt whiskey and is sold in sealed bottles only; never in bulk. Price $1.00. Look for the trade-mark, the "Old Chemist," on the label, and make sure the seal over the cork is unbroken. Illustrated medical booklet and doctor's advice free. Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y.

RAILWAY AFFAIRS

A good sign to the railroad officials of returning prosperity is the fact that many of the side tracks that have been blocked by stored cars for which there was no demand are now cleared and are open for their regular use as passing sidings. There has been a demand for box cars to be sent west for the grain trade and this has assisted materially in clearing up the divisions through this section. Also the recent freeze has been the means of a heavy harvest along lakes and a demand for cars to handle it was a natural result.

To Stop Sale of Liquor.

Intoxicants have become unpopular with the Pullman Palace Car company as well as with the railroads, and in a short time the incinerating glass may be barred from the hundreds of comfort cars traveling all over the United States. The reason alleged for this contemplated action is not one of moral reform, nor has it for its aim the physical betterment of employees, as is the motive with the railroads. But the Pullman company it is said, has found trouble through local option legislation and would avoid it in the future by discontinuing its traffic in liquor. Recently buffet car attendants, especially in the New England and middle western states have been harassed trying to keep track of boundary lines in which local option was effective. Another reason given for such a course of action is that passengers frequently become hilarious or otherwise troublesome on diners and create disturbances through the use of alcoholic beverages. Because of this, it is declared, some travelers refuse to patronize buffet cars and, for the reason that the sale of intoxicants are objectionable to them the company loses considerable patronage.

Changing of Station Platform.

Officials of the Pennsylvania lines are considering the advisability of changing station platforms for passengers all along the road, in the interest of greater safety, says the Columbus Sun. Accidents frequently happen to passengers on account of standing too close to trains and by reason of the coach steps coming too near the edge of the platforms. One of the plans proposed is to raise all platforms so that passengers will go down a pair of steps before getting to the coach steps and not allowing any body on the platform steps except in getting on and off the cars.

Engineer Superstitions.

In order that the prophecy in mystic writing that he was to be killed on his engine should not come true, Norfolk & Western Railway Passenger Engineer L. K. Matthews, of Roanoke, a few nights ago asked for and obtained a leave of absence. He will be assigned to another engine when he resumes his run between Roanoke and Lynchburg. Matthews declared he saw a card on the cab of his engine containing a warning that he would be killed on February 16 in a wreck. Matthews asserts that he read the notice a score of times while running his train, but that when he turned to take down the sign it had disappeared, and there were no marks to indicate that it had been attached to the cab. Matthews will be given engine 41, which has already killed 12 men. His old engine, No. 47, has killed three men, two of them at the spot where the warning told Matthews he would meet death. Matthews is one of the oldest drivers on the system.

Spotters for B. & O. Railroad.

The Zanesville Signal says: "The employees of the B. & O. railroad are all becoming very circumspect in their actions since the recent order of the company in regard to the use of intoxicants, and are taking no chances in having their names reported to headquarters, as they have reason to believe from the experiences of other unfortunate employees that their jobs would be greatly jeopardized. At first the order of the company was regarded as a joke, and little, if any attention was paid to the matter, but they soon found that the company was sincere, cruelly sincere, in their determination to have all their men get aboard the water wagon and stay there. The new men who fell by the wayside early in the game immediately lost their jobs and furnished an example to the others which has had its effect. To make matters worse, it appears that detectives and spotters have been put out by the company and some of their experiences have been very trying and although their shrewdness ought to have saved them from detection, they were dealing with men who are intelligent and who were not to be fooled by 'Nick Carter' methods and disguises. It seems that the favorite method used by the spotters is to enter a bar room and while their intended victim is indulging in a glass of beer, snap him on the spot with a kodak and then turn the picture in to the company as evidence."

Makes One Laugh.

The official plea of the railroads, asking postponement of the nine hour law because they cannot get telegraphers enough, makes one laugh. What has become of those thousands of telegraphers who were thrown out of work last summer at the time of the strike, and who, we were assured, could not get their jobs back when the strike was called off?

Engineers' Wages Not to be Cut.

"We will not stand for a wage reduction from the railroads," said Warren S. Stone, grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. "Some railroads have announced that there is to be a general wage cut. There are $62,000 men in our organization. They work by the mile. The falling off in freight business has already practically reduced their wages almost 50 per cent for freight engineers. The cost of living is just as high as it has ever been. We cannot live on less money."

"Would a strike be ordered on the roads where reductions were made in the wage scale?" Stone was asked.

"There won't be a strike. We won't start to fight until we get on the firing line. You can put it as strong as you like that there will be no cut in the wages of our 62,000 engineers," he declared.

Cut is Only Temporary.

Although the Pennsylvania Railroad company's pay roll for January was reduced $1,500,000 below that of January a year ago, as a result of economies devised to offset the dullness in freight traffic and to hold earnings to the old dividend capacity, it is announced by the officials that the cut is only temporary, says the Dennison Paragraph. For the most part this cut was made possible by a reduction of hours in the shops and by dividing train service between crews. The economies resorted to in order to protect the system against present conditions are, therefore, merely temporary, and will cease as rapidly as the time brightens.

DENISON

Track Team Making Arrangements For Coming Season—Will Meet Big Six.

Granville, Feb. 25.—Track work now has the call on the attention of the student body at Denison. If the present plans do not miscarry the Baptist college bids fair to be represented this year by a winning track team. Coach Rohrer issued a call for all those who desired to try out for this team Monday evening, and a large number of promising candidates presented themselves. For the present the running track in Swasey gymnasium will be utilized one hour each day for preliminary work.

Among those who are trying out are such tried and true track veterans as Rodgers and Rockwood, two of last year's basketball team; Mather and Carmen, who represented Denison in the cross-country run with State last year. Besides these there are a number of promising youngsters, who have shown speed in local contests. Possions, the captain of the track team, is without a doubt one of the fastest men that has ever worn a "D."

Meets will be arranged with the different Ohio colleges in the "Big Six" association. Manager Huffman has had much experience in this kind of sport and promises to arrange a good schedule.

Discharged in Session of Police Court Tuesday Afternoon as No Crime Was Proved.

Tom Wharton, whose arrest was noted exclusively in Monday night's Advocate, was again taken into custody at a late hour last evening on the charge of threatening to shoot Officers Burke and McClure. The warrant for his arrest was sworn to Monday afternoon by Officer Burke, who, with Officer McClure, placed him under arrest last night. He spent the night in the city prison, but was released this morning on bail.

His trial was called at 1 o'clock today and B. G. Smythe acted as attorney for the defendant. On the first count, that of throwing a beer glass at an officer, nothing was proved. All the witnesses testifying in favor of the prisoner. Under the second charge, that of threatening to shoot an officer, his attorney proved that no crime had been committed under the state laws, and that nothing could be done unless the officers swear they are afraid of the man and desire that he be placed under a peace bond.

DO NOT KNOW WHAT CAUSES SICKNESS

Modern People Have Many Names for Same Diseases, According to New Belief.

Does human health depend on one organ alone? This question is becoming widely discussed since L. T. Cooper first advanced his theory that the stomach is the true seat of life and all health dependent upon it.

Mr. Cooper, who has met with remarkable success in the sale of his new medicine, believes that the stomach is responsible for most sickness, and that this organ is weak in the present generation. While discussing this theory recently, he said: "I am asked time and again to tell why my medicine has made such a record wherever I have introduced it. My answer always is, 'because it restores the stomach to a normal condition.' No one will deny that today there are more half-sick men and women than ever before. Nothing critical seems to be the matter with them. They are just half-sick most of the time. They don't know really what is the matter with them. I have talked with thousands during the past two years, and few knew indeed what their trouble was. One said nervousness, another said kidney trouble, another liver complaint, some constipation, or heart trouble, or lung trouble. Many had been treated, as they called it, for most of these diseases at different times. A very common complaint is 'all run down,' or 'tired all the time,' or 'no appetite.'"

"I know positively that every bit of this chronic ill health is caused by stomach trouble, and nothing else. My New Discovery puts the stomach in sound condition in about six weeks. Mighty few people can be sick with a sound digestion. That is why my medicine is selling at such a tremendous rate. I have convinced many thousands of people that these things are so, and the number is growing by leaps and bounds."

Among more recent converts to Mr. Cooper's beliefs is Mr. Edgar L. Hinds, living at 6 Tappan Street, Everett, Mass. Mr. Hinds has this to say on the subject:

"I have suffered with stomach trouble for eight years. I was not sick enough to be in bed, but just felt bad all the time. My greatest trouble was that I always felt tired, would get up in the morning feeling as tired as when I went to bed."

"I had a very irregular appetite, and was troubled with dizzy spells. If I stood for any length of time, I would have a dull pain in the lower part of my back. I was nervous and felt all the time as though something terrible was going to happen. I tried many kinds of medicine, but nothing ever helped me."

"I had about given up all hope of ever being in good health again, when I heard so much of Cooper and decided to try his medicine. I took one bottle of his New Discovery and was greatly surprised at the result. I gained 12 pounds in a few weeks. I can now eat anything I wish, and feel like a new man. I cheerfully recommend this medicine to all sufferers from stomach trouble."

It is worth anyone's time, who is not enjoying good health, to learn of Mr. Cooper's wonderful preparations. We are selling them in large quantities. —City Drug Store.

THOUGHTS ON BUSINESS

BY
WALDO PONDRAY WARREN

RUNNING DOWN AN ERROR

I'm talking with a successful business manager not long ago the subject of correcting errors came up. I asked him: "How do you treat an employee when you find that he has made a mistake?"

"It depends on the employee," he said, "and on the nature of the mistake. I have great deal more leniency for a mistake due to ignorance than for one due to carelessness. But I do not believe in abusing an employee for a mistake. I take the attitude that it is a serious thing, and that doubtless he feels badly about it. I don't try to smooth it over, but let his own self-conviction be his punishment."

"And what about correcting it?"

"Usually I require him to look into the matter and report to me, and show me just exactly how the mistake happened. He usually knows that point better than anyone else can tell him. I question him quietly until he admits that it was just because he let it go, or because he assumed some point without investigation, or some such reason. Nearly every mistake can be traced back to some source of that kind. When the real reason is brought to light we talk it over as the occasion warrants, and I make sure that he corrects the underlying thought which gave occasion for the error. This gives fair assurance that a similar mistake will not occur again. That is better than mere scolding."

CLIMATE OF DENVER

Said to be Delightful in Month of July—Seventy Degrees is Average High Temperature.

Those who go to Denver to attend the meeting of the Democratic National convention in July may expect greater comfort than is generally found in the national conventions held during the summer months," said a Colorado man to the Advocate today. One of the chief charms of Denver's summer climate is the low temperature that prevails, tempering the summer heat with a delightful coolness. During the month of July there will be no day or night that will not be so cool that discomfort from heat will be a thing unheard of. The breezes from the mountains stimulate and invigorate after the heat of the day. In Eastern cities the temperature generally reaches 100 in the shade on a July day. There is no breath of air stirring, and the skin exudes perspiration and wears a coating of discomfort. In Denver 70 degrees is the average high temperature in summer and that only lasts for a few hours in the hottest part of the day. The evenings bring the mercury down to an average of 60 degrees in the hottest months. And 70 degrees in Denver is a great deal cooler than the same temperature in a lower altitude, as there is no humidity.

PAYS TRIBUTE TO LATE DR. REYNOLDS

The Chicago correspondent of Musical America, one of the foremost weekly musical publications, in last week's issue pays high tribute to the work of the late Dr. Charles E. Reynolds, formerly organist at Trinity Episcopal church here, and who for a long time presided as organist and choir director of St. James' in Chicago. Accompanying the article is a four column half tone made from a recent photograph of the boy choir of St. James'. In the paper much of the credit of the present high standing of the boy choir, is resting on Dr. Reynolds, the well known Clarence Eddy, and one or two other well known musicians who have been in charge there.

SOLONS AT COLUMBUS

GETTING READY FOR THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION NEXT WEEK.

House Has the Heavy End—Sample State of Republican Nominations. Senators to be Snubbed.

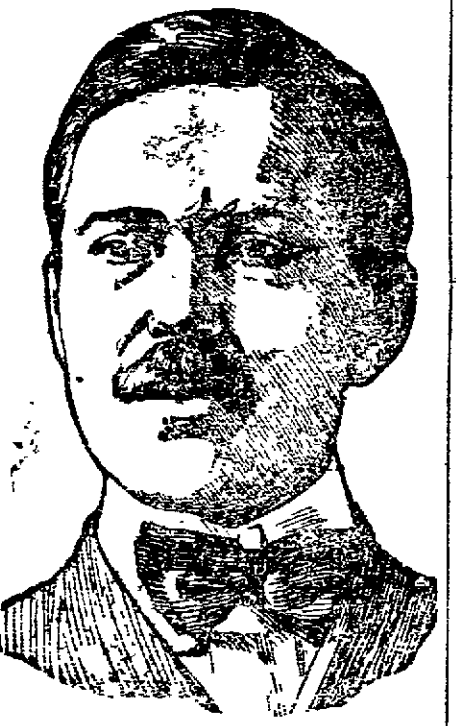

Columbus, O., Feb. 25.—With well-filled calendars in both house and senate the Ohio legislature resumed business this week by adding more measures to the bill books. But the introducing of bills never ceases of a certainty at any session until adjournment sine die.

This is to be a busy week in both branches because of a desire to dispose of as much business as possible, for the Republican convention next week will make it necessary to suspend business Tuesday and Wednesday.

The house will have the heavy end this week, with the Rose county option bill a special order for Wednesday and the Bronson primary elections bill a special order for Thursday.

In the senate the most important measure to come up this week is the Jones bill to attach to dry districts in cities created under the Jones law any pockets which may contain saloons.

Senator Gayman's joint resolution proposing a taxation amendment to the constitution, which has been recommended for adoption by the judiciary committee and is on the house calendar for this week, differs in one important particular from the Hoiles taxation amendment resolution which was before the house two weeks ago, but was recommitted to the taxation committee. The Hoiles resolution, as was disclosed in the debate upon the floor, protected public bonds in their present exemption from taxation. The Gayman resolution leaves the whole matter with the legislature, which accords with the recommendation of the governor's taxation commission.

Investigation has become the watchword of the session. It is used often enough to suggest it as the proper password into the most secret conferences and caucuses. The probing of Cincinnati will be renewed regardless of the Democratic indignation and Republican humiliation over Speaker Eagle's selection for house members for suspicion that the outspoken disgust on the Republican side was a decoy to encourage indignation among Democrats to bring about if possible abandonment of the investigation by rescinding the resolution. Whatever the motive back of it, the only direct result is the blighting of Speaker Eagle's candidacy for lieutenant governor, which blossomed out so pure and undefiled ten days ago. Speaker Eagle is in that uncomfortable predicament which means blasted ambition in any event. If he were to receive the support of Cox's delegates in convention it would convict him of conspiring with the Cincinnati boss; without Cox's support Eagle could not get the nomination.

Senator Samuel H. West of Bellefontaine tried to jump into Eagle's claim in the first flurry of excitement over Eagle's probers. West has led a valiant fight against every measure before the senate so far obnoxious to those corporations which take so much interest in legislative proceedings. West was talked of some months ago as a likely candidate for attorney general, but the statemakers do not find it convenient to place him there, so he resented "Eagle's blunder" as the psychological moment for announcing his candidacy for lieutenant governor. The time was ripe enough, but there are about a dozen men who want to be running mate to Governor Jones, so it is not absolutely certain that West is to be preferred to the other 11, although he is said to be the favorite.

By the time the convention assembles the state will be put on trial, and whatever contests may be on the program will be for a solid purpose.

poses only. At present there is some uncertainty about the choice for attorney general and school commissioner, but all the kinks will be taken out before the convention is called to order. A forerunner of some ability, not connected with the local weather bureau, has staked his reputation as a prophet on the following slate: For governor, Andrew L. Harris; for lieutenant governor, Senator Samuel H. West of Bellefontaine; for state treasurer, Herman Buehr of Cleveland; for state auditor, E. M. Fullington of Marysville; for state secretary, Carmel A. Thompson, renomination; for clerk of supreme court, John S. McNutt of Columbiana county; for supreme judge, James L. Price (renomination) and Judge E. B. Dillon of Columbus; for members state board of public works, B. W. Baldwin (renomination) and Frank J. McCullough of Logan county; delegates-at-large to national convention, Governor Harris, Myron T. Herrick, Charles P. Taft (the secretary's brother) of Cincinnati, and Arthur I. Vorr of Lancaster, manager of Taft's campaign. This list reads well, but of course it is "subject to change." The absolutely certain and significant fact that for the first time in many years the Ohio Republican senators will not be included among the "Big Four."

So completely testified is the convention to be that James R. Garfield, a member of the president's official as well as his tennis cabinet, will be the temporary chairman of the convention. This will be Garfield's first public appearance in Ohio since he, as a member of the senate committee which probed the first election of M. A. Hanna to the United States senate, also aided Mr. Hanna very materially by acting as sort of interrogatory counsel in Hanna's behalf. There is talk of going back to the old rule and separate chairmen for the temporary and permanent organization. In that event Attorney General Ellis is booked for permanent chairman.

State Treasurer McKinnon certainly did upset his kettle of fish into the fire when he refused to comply with the first Stockwell resolution, requesting full information about the distribution of state deposits. When the house committee appointed to wait upon him personally for the information called at the treasury, he made a statement as to the deposits but said it would take a week to make out a complete list concerning the past two years. That list will be due Wednesday.

Meanwhile the senate committee will go ahead with its probing of the state treasury, which makes three departments under Republican control that are being investigated—the treasury, department of public schools and the penitentiary.

The over-crowded old capitol building and annex gives rise to many fanciful ideas about meeting the deficiency. Some of these have been mentioned heretofore in this correspondence, such as putting a third story on the present building, or building wings on the north and south sides. Then there are the visionaries who want to wipe out several squares adjacent to the state house to make a group of public buildings, for which the purchase price of the property alone would exceed the graft price of Pennsylvania's new capitol at Harrisburg. Representative Bense of Ottawa county proposes a new and practical plan to provide sufficient office room for state departments and leave more rooms in the old building available for use of legislative committees. Additional committee rooms are sadly needed during a session. Important committees hold meetings in offices all over the capitol because there are not half enough rooms for that purpose. Mr. Bense's idea is to erect adjacent to, or near the capitol square a modern skyscraper 15 or 20 stories high. The interior of this building can be changed to fit the requirements of the departments occupying space in it, and even readjusted from time to time by taking advantage of the modern method of making removable partitions of hollow tile. It would accommodate the growing need of the state for a half century to come, and by relieving the congestion in the present state house, would provide more room for the senate and house of representatives. Besides all this, Mr. Bense says enough money could be derived from rent of office room to private tenants to pay the interest on the cost of constructing the building.

Allen Ripley Foote, commissioner of the state board of commerce, also comes forward with a suggestion, which is not altogether different from Mr. Bense's suggestion. He would erect a new capitol building on the square immediately east of the state house grounds and keep the old building intact to be given over to the State Archaeological and Historical society, state library, relic rooms, museum and similar purposes. Mr. Foote thinks the entire state should be interested in the movement for a new capitol and advocates the adoption of a joint resolution providing for the appointment of a capitol commission, to be composed of one member from each county, this commission to decide on the advisability of erecting the building, arrange plans, etc. It would give each county in the state a voice and should report its conclusion to the next session of the legislature.

The senate has passed the bill to appropriate $75,000 to erect a residence for the governor and it is now before the house. Governor Herrick vetoed a like appropriation four years ago.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

No other medicine for Woman's ills in the world has received such wide-spread and unqualified endorsement as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs.

No other medicine has such a record of success for woman's diseases, or such hosts of grateful friends as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For more than 30 years it has been the standard remedy for feminine ills, Inflammation, Ulceration, and consequent Spinal Weakness.

It has relieved more cases of Backache and Local Weaknesses than any other one remedy. It dissolves and expels tumors in an early stage of development.

Irregularities and periodic pains, Weakness of the Stomach, Indigestion, Bloating, Nervous Prostration, Headache, General Debility, quickly yield to it; also deranged organs, causing pain, dragging sensations and backache. Under all circumstances it acts in harmony with the female system.

It removes that wearing feeling, extreme lassitude, "don't care" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feeling, excitability, irritability, nervousness, dizziness, faintness, sleeplessness, flatulency, melancholy or the "blues." These are indications of Feminine disorders, which this medicine overcomes as well as slight derangement of the Kidneys of either sex.

Women who are sick and want to get well should refuse to accept any substitute for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

SIMPLE WASH CURES ECZEMA.

Itching, Burning Skin Disease Routed Without Use of Injurious Drugs.

Great inventors often have been praised for surrendering the secrets of their discoveries. Practically the same thing happened in the medical world in the case of Dr. Decatur D. Dennis, the eminent skin specialist of Chicago.

Dr. Dennis in his own office practice discovered that pure vegetable oil of wintergreen, properly mixed with other simple remedies was practically a sure specific for Eczema, psoriasis, barber's itch, salt rheum, and other itching skin diseases. But the oil of wintergreen alone was found ineffective. It required other mild ingredients such as glycerine and thymol compounded with the wintergreen to produce the real eczema cure.

This compounded D. D. D. Prescription positively takes away the itch at once—the instant it is applied to the skin. This vegetable liquid does away with deleterious drugs so long used in an attempt to doctor the blood, whereas modern science has determined that eczema is first and all the time a skin disease.

If you want to know more about the merits of D. D. D. Prescription, call at our store. We vouch for this remedy. Frank D. Hall, druggist, N. Park Place, Newark, Ohio.

GOOD DOPE

Smoked by a Saginaw, Mich., Man Whose 8,000 Chickens Will Operate a Set of Chimes.

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 25.—A chime of bells operated by 8,000 chickens is the original plan of James Prickett, of Saginaw, Mich. On the floor of the chicken house he will place a metallic table, which will be connected with the chimes far above in the tower by an insulated wire. The pecking of the 8,000 roosters and hens, Prickett declares will set up a vibratory motion in the table which will start a powerful electric motor in operation. This motor in turn will release the spring controlling the chimes, which will then begin to ring. Thus all the chickens on the farm will know dinner is on, and while they are dining will have music to whet their appetites just as the actresses do along the White Way.

COMPLIMENT

PAID THE LATE CAPT. JAMES H. SMITH BY AN OLD PIQUA COMRADE.

Mr. John A. Fisher, President of Mexican Veteran Society, Will Visit Newark Wednesday.

Piqua, Feb. 20, 1908.
Mr. John A. Fisher: Dear Sir and Comrade—Yours of February 18th received and contents noted. While it was sad news to hear that our esteemed friend and comrade was dead, yet I was very little surprised for I remember that I noticed at our last reunion that he had changed mentally and physically within the preceding year. Well, Capt. James H. Smith served our association as secretary long and faithfully, and always rendered efficient and satisfactory service. Comrade Smith lived to a good old age, honored and respected by his comrades and citizens and died with the honors on.

In regard to his successor as secretary of our association will say that while I appreciate the honor you do me by offering me the position, yet I feel that I should decline to accept, believing as I do that your daughter, Miss Eleanor Fisher, is fully entitled to the honor and further that she is well qualified to fill the position with entire satisfaction to all the members of the association.

I would respectfully suggest that you go to Newark and get all the records and papers belonging to the association and turn them over to your daughter, and I hope they may be assigned to her care for a long time to come, as she is young and capable and takes an interest in the welfare of the old Mexican Veterans still camping on this side of the Dark River.

If you visit Newark please to let me know the result as I am greatly interested in all business pertaining to our Ohio State Association of Veterans of the Mexican War.

Respectfully,
FRANK A. HARDY.

Roxwell, O., Feb. 24, 1908.
Editor Newark Advocate: Dear Sir—My daughter Eleanor and I will be at Putnam's printing office, 76 West Main street, Wednesday, Feb. 26, to receive the books and papers belonging to the Mexican Veteran Society.

All parties interested please meet us on that date about one o'clock.
Respectfully,
ELEANOR A. FISHER

Mr. Pancoast has already taken up his work in the Twin Cities, but will continue to write for System and other commercial and advertising journals.

After four days the battle ships of the American Navy still are as strong an attraction to Peruvians as on the morning of their arrival. Crowds continue to visit the ships, where they are given every opportunity for a thorough inspection of the great fighting machines. Yesterday there were 30,000 visitors in Callao.

The body of P. R. Lewis, a sailor of the battleship Illinois, who died Saturday, was brought ashore yesterday and interred. Fifty men from the Illinois attended the funeral. Services were conducted by the chaplain of the battleship. The band played before and after the funeral service was read.

Admiral Evans has inaugurated in Lima a system of naval patrols. This police service has been excellent, and as a result there has been no unpleasantness whatever. The shore force is in command of two officers, who patrol the city on horseback.

A congratulatory telegram to President Roosevelt was received yesterday from Jose Pardo, president of Peru, and replied to by the President.

President Pardo said:
"I have just visited the flagship Connecticut and reviewed the whole great squadron commanded by Admiral Evans, and I have the satisfaction of expressing to Your Excellency my admiration for the splendid condition of all the ships, and for the enthusiasm and energy of the crews. The squadron now visiting us worthily represents the power and greatness of the United States, and its men are given a fraternal reception in Peru."

The President replied:
"I am much pleased to receive your telegram, and I heartily appreciate your laudatory comments regarding the American fleet. The enthusiastic welcome and friendly demonstration at Callao have gratified and touched the American people, who have ever had for Peruvians sentiments of sincere esteem. Accept the assurances of the highest consideration and warm regards from me and from my people."

A telegram of congratulations also was received at the State Department from Senor Bernales of the Peruvian government. It reads:
"Congratulations today. We are all very proud to have the American fleet in Peruvian waters. Kindest regards."

THE FAME OF GREAT INVENTORS

There's the man who won fame by inventing the plow, and the man with the rickon for milkkin a cow; there's the man who invented the novel device for making in summer the coldest of ice; and thousands of others of whom we might tell, who fame have acquired through schemes that they sold. But we wish to relate of a painter obscure, who was wholly unknown and had always been poor. Aurora Mixed Paint he read of one day and decided to try it without more delay. Since then he has prospered—known far and wide, and now wishes sooner these paints he had tried, for he learned that the people as quickly as he, had discovered Aurora Mixed Paint to be a good honest paint, and soon from his name he succeeded in winning both fortune and fame. Aurora Mixed Paint is made for both inside and outside work and will be found to cover the surface and wear longer than other paints. Manufactured by Th. Martell's Paint & Color Co., Marietta, Ohio. CAUGHT WITH GOODS ON

Foreigner on Jackson Street Sells
Bucket of Beer Sunday Night.
Given Ten and Costs.

Just as John Cucu, a foreigner running a saloon on Jackson street, was handing a bucket of beer over the bar to a couple of customers at 8 o'clock Sunday evening, the door opened and Officer Lytle strolled in. The trio was just about the most surprised people in town, for the arrival of the officer was about the last thing that they were thinking of.

The officer has been watching the saloon for some time, but Sunday night was the first time he has had a chance to catch the proprietor "with the goods on." The bucket still stood on the bar, but the bubbles went, and the beer grew stale, while the men watched the officer idly, waiting for him to leave.

Cucu was ordered to close up and appear at the following day before the mayor who had a few dollars more had issued orders regarding saloons to his officers. When the man appeared Monday he was fined five dollars and costs, amounting in all to $12, and a little while later was also fined $100 for the same offense.

INJUNCTION ALLOWED

GLASS FACTORIES AT UTICA RESTRAINING STRIKERS FROM INTERFERING.

Brought Back From Delaware for Trial—Charged With Nonsupport of Minor Child.

The Utica Glass company has commenced suit in the Common Pleas court against the National Window Glass Workers, the local union of the National Window Glass Workers of America at Utica, and Hile Montrose, August Applegate, Timothy Cramer, Charles Webber, Harry Williams and Jacob Yotter, members and officers of the association. Plaintiff alleges that defendants are now on a strike, and that it is the intention to operate the plant with workmen belonging to the Blowers' and Gatherers' Protective Association. Plaintiff says that defendants have conspired and combined to prevent it from operating its plant with workmen associated with the Blowers' and Gatherers' Mutual Protective association. Plaintiff says that defendants do not content themselves from abstaining and refusing to work, but gather in numbers and come singly, in couples and in squads on the premises of the plaintiff, follow after and stop the employees of plaintiff while going to and from their work, and threaten the employees with bodily harm if they continue in its employment. Plaintiff says that at great expense it has hired workmen from a distance and brought them to Utica to work in its plant, and that as soon as the workmen arrive in Utica, defendants surround them at the railroad station, and endeavor to persuade them from going to work. Plaintiff asks that defendants, each of them, as an organization, and as individuals, be commanded to keep off the premises of plaintiff; to restrain defendants from protesting, threatening or in any manner hindering any of the employees of plaintiff from discharging their duties; or from stopping, interfering and threatening any of the employees of plaintiff in going to and coming from their work.

The Licking Glass company has commenced similar proceedings, and a temporary injunction as prayed for in both cases was allowed by Judge Seward. J. R. Fitzgibbon attorney for plaintiff in both cases.
